PROFILE

When people contact my office, they often feel lost and discouraged. Many have lived in a constant state of stress and anxiety over their tax problems -- sometimes for years. They want nothing more than to make the tax problems go away, but don't know where to start. That's where I come in.

My practice is primarily focused on representing individuals in all stages of their civil or criminal disputes with the IRS, Department of Justice, or other agency inquiry. I also assist clients with international tax strategies and compliance, including offshore holdings.

In addition to tax clients, I represent a select number of entrepreneurs, artists and athletes in business and personal matters.

I am a member of the Texas Bar Association's Tax Section, as well as a frequent author and presenter on tax-related topics.
