

SERVICE OVERVIEW

A tax dispute can range from a tax audit, a protest or administrative appeal, litigating a tax dispute before the United States Tax Court or other judicial body, criminal tax investigations, or resolving a collection dispute with an offer in compromise or installment agreement when a client cannot conveniently pay his or her IRS debt.

Our tax litigation and defense practice has been developed to specifically aid our clients in resolving their disputes with the Internal Revenue Service and other related agencies.

If you are the subject of an IRS or other agency inquiry, you need a tax lawyer on your side who knows the system and has experience approaching tax matters from different angles.

Our tax law firm can assist you in all types of disputes relating to federal income tax. As your counsel, we guide you through every stage of the process from initial notice to court with practical advice for an effective defense. We can also work with you to deal with the Collection Division of the IRS, including negotiating payment arrangements and other resolution outcomes on your behalf.

Whether fighting for an abatement of penalties or favorable negotiated settlements, you can count on diligent and cost-effective representation from our firm.

We commonly represent individuals, entrepreneurs, small business owners, and professionals.
