PROFILE

My practice is primarily focused on representing individuals and small businesses in domestic tax compliance, estate planning, and probate matters.

My objective is to make life's inevitabilities — death and taxes — manageable for clients while being cognizant of the complications these issues raise from a legal, personal, business, and cost perspective.

In addition to tax and legacy planning clients, I represent a select number of entrepreneurs, artists, and athletes in business and personal matters.

I am a member of the Texas Bar Association's Tax Section and published author on tax-related topics.
